Dubai Corporate Legal Support

Each nation practices the corporate law based on their own specific rulings, hence the similar circumstance for the United Arab Emirates. Obtainment of licenses and permits, concerns on company proceedings and dealings and information on the permissible types of enterprise and whatnot are some issues dealt with in establishing business ventures in the country. For instance, License to operate for businesses are issued by the Dubai Economic Department, however, some types of businesses necessitate 100% foreign ownership authorization from other and some tax exemptions.
