Personal status services opened in Hatta

Personal status services opened in Hatta HE Expert/ Tarish Eid Al Mansouri, Director-General of Dubai Courts opened a branch of the personal status services department in Hatta in cooperation with the Centers of Dubai Municipality to provide hassle free services to the audience through completing the transactions in their areas.

These services will provide the authentication services relating to personal status like authentication of marital affairs contracts, such as marriage, remarriage and entry, in addition to certificates of marital status, will, donation, Islam, kinship, custody, and trade on Wednesdays only in Hatta.

Al Mansouri said that the launch of these services that were preceded by the Notary Services came under directives of HH Sheikh Maktoum Bin Mohamed Bin Rashid Al Maktoum, Dubai Deputy Ruler and Chairman of the Board of Dubai Judicial Council, which aim to provide the best services to the public.

The new branch of Hatta

ous areas in the emirate of Dubai, particularly in the light of the ongoing population growth being witnessed in the emirate, Al Mansouri added. These centers significantly contribute to facilitating the procedures and saving time that offers several hassle free services will make it easy for the citizens and residents living there through allowing completion of the transactions in shorter time and less effort, he added.

The increase in number of the service centers affiliating to Dubai Courts comes within the strategy to enhance its services in vari-and effort to the customers.

Additionally, they are expected to play an effective role in lessening the pressure on the other courts through efficiently providing fast services.

The new branch in Hatta that will work on Wednesdays opens from 9:00 am to 2:00 pm, Al Mansouri said, adding that a new building
